EMPIRE MAY ADOPT FIVE-YEAR PLAN TRADE AGREEMENTS

Conference Considers Making Pacts for Minimum Duration, Then Terminable at Six Months' Notice—Majority of Treaties Practically Complete—Anglo-Australian Talks Strike Snag

OTTAWA, Aug. 15 (CP).—The Empire Conference is moving towards a five-year plan. Trade agreements negotiated, it is proposed, shall have a minimum duration of five years and shall then be terminable at six months' notice on either side. The Canada-Australian agreement (to extend the agreement now existing) has virtually reached the printing stage. Other agreements between individual Dominions are almost equally advanced.

The agreement between India and the United Kingdom merely awaits conclusion of the other large agreements before being finally completed. Russian dumping and food taxes in Great Britain still crop up in discussions, but there has been no change in the day of final plenary. It still stands for Thursday.

ONE DIFFERENCE UNSETTLED
Difficulties which have arisen between Great Britain and Australia over Argentine beef remain, however, unsettled. Australia has insisted on a restriction by quota or similar effective means of central British imports of Argentine beef. Tariff preferences have passed into the background for the time being as inadequate.

Great Britain declines the Australian request, pointing out that she has $550,000,000 invested in the Argentine. Australia replies that British investments in Australia total $600,000,000 and that she is late tonight the difference over chilled beef should be the whole Australian position.

DETAILS TO BE WITHHELD
The present intention is not to announce full details of the trade agreements even when signed. It is proposed rather that official announcements shall be confined to statement of the general principles but not giving specific figures of preferences. These would not be announced until legislation to give them effect is introduced in the various Parliaments throughout the Commonwealth. Earlier announcement, it is thought, would precipitate undue dumping of foreign goods. Decision on the point, however, is not final.

CENSORS HARM EMPIRE FILMS

Effort of Conference Subcommittee Is to Avoid Needless "Mutilation"

By RAY BROWN
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—Closer contact between Empire "movie" film producers and censorship authorities is recommended in the report of the Imperial Conference subcommittee on films and radio. Such co-operation, it is suggested, might result in preventing "mutilation" of films.

PREVENT MUTILATION
Under present conditions, a film made in London for Empire circulation may not conform to censorship regulations in some of the Dominions. Consequently, before it is shown in that Dominion, it must be "mutilated" to the extent necessary to bring it within the regulations. Closer co-operation, it is suggested, might result in the film being produced as to conform with regulations generally in effect throughout the Commonwealth. The findings are now before the Imperial Conference committee on methods of economic co-operation.

GENERAL PROPOSALS
General recommendations are made in the report. It is recommended that the Imperial Conference take special notice of the need for further radio and film development throughout the Commonwealth. The importance of cultural and educational film and radio production is emphasized.

No recommendation in respect to film distribution is made in the report and a quota for British films in Canada is not dealt with, it is understood.

In respect to radio, the report recommends closer liaison between the responsible bodies in Canada through the British Commonwealth.

States New York Mayor to Resign

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—The Philadelphia Record says it learned today from "reliable sources" that James J. Walker will resign as Mayor of New York within the next few days, before Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt can announce his final decision.

The Record intimates that, in event of his resignation, Walker may be a candidate to succeed himself.

If the Mayor resigns, the paper says, he will give as his reason that "under the law it is not possible for him to get the fair hearing which he deserves."

New White Army To Fight Secret Fear in Ireland

Dr. O'Higgins to Lead Newest Group to Stand Between People and Intimidation—Recruits Flocking to Join Divisional Units

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Aug. 15 (AP).—A new "white" army is being formed in the Irish Free State with the announced purpose of maintaining law and order. Dr. O'Higgins, president of the volunteer division of the Soarstat Army Comrades' Association, declared today his organization is neither a menace nor a challenge to the Free State Government.

There already are two armies in the Free State—the "Green" force of Soarstat regulars and the "Red" Irish Republican army, which was an illegal organization under the old Cosgrave Government. Much interest has been aroused in the new association.

"We only stand between the people and the menace of secret organizations," Dr. O'Higgins said. "Our division is not a military organization, likely to precipitate war, our immediate object is peace. There is no intention to issue arms and there will be no drilling so long as drilling remains illegal in this country. The backbone of the organization consists, of course, of men already trained."

SECRET GROUPS FEARED
Dr. O'Higgins asserted the people were in a state of depression and demoralization as a result of invisible intimidation, and that they were at the mercy of secret groups. "Our division is not a military organization, likely to precipitate war, our immediate object is peace. There is no intention to issue arms and there will be no drilling so long as drilling remains illegal in this country. The backbone of the organization consists, of course, of men already trained."

Recruits are flocking to join the division, and it is anticipated that Continued on Page 2, Column 4

CONVERSION LOAN IS BIG SUCCESS

Officials Pleased With Results—Beneficial Results for British Industry Expected

LONDON, Aug. 15 (AP).—The Government announced today that the amount converted under the war loan conversion scheme now is approximately $1,850,000,000. Officials described this as a highly satisfactory result.

Options in the conversion operation continue until the end of September, after which all holders who have neither converted their stock nor applied for cash redemption will be deemed to have accepted the new conditions of 3-1-2 per cent securities, redeemable in twenty years.

Government circles expect beneficial results for British finance and industry from the successful conversion and the effects it will have on Britain's credit before the war.

SWEEPING REORGANIZATION URGED BY CIVIC AUDITORS

Merger of Small Departments With Larger Ones, Centralization of Collections in Treasury Department and Consolidation of Assessor's and Collector's Offices Are Recommended

Numerous Changes in Policy Also Suggested

A SWEEPING reorganization of civic departments, having as its basis the merger of small departments with larger ones and with the treasury department as a central collection agency for all bills, was recommended to the City Council at its meeting last night by the auditing firm of Ismay, Boiston & Holden, which has just completed a five-month survey at the City Hall.

FIRE CAUSES HEAVY LOSS

Damage Estimated at $20,000 at Smith & Champion, Ltd., Store

Believed to have been caused by lightning during last night's thunderstorm, fire broke out in the upper story of the furniture store of Smith & Champion, Limited, 1420 Douglas Street, and damage to stock estimated at between $20,000 and $25,000 was done when firemen poured a flood of water through a skylight to extinguish the blaze.

How long the fire had been burning before it burst through the roof and attracted attention is not definitely known, but it is estimated that it must have been quite an hour after the lightning flash. The alarm was received at Central Fire Station at 11:12 o'clock, the entire equipment of the station responding.

The building, which is owned by Joseph Brothers and for which Pemberton & Son, Victoria, are agents, was not badly damaged, as the fire was confined to the space between the upper and lower roof. Apparently little of the expensive stock of furniture and home furnishings was damaged by fire, but water and smoke damage to the roof and a large amount of the insurance on the stock is about $14,000.

Although lightning is believed to have been the cause, nothing definite can be ascertained until after an inspection. Large crowds were attracted to the location by the volume of smoke issuing from the roof.

POSTMASTER AT YALE ROBBED BY BANDITS

VANCOUVER, Aug. 15.—According to word received here today, bandits attacked the postmaster at Yale on Saturday, and after slugging him stole a mail bag containing $50 in small stamps, a number of air mail and special delivery stamps, 225 stamped envelopes, 100 postcards, book of money orders, $50 in postal notes and $100 in cash.

Name Von Schleicher As Strong Contender For Chancellorship

Dr. Franz Bracht Mentioned as Likely Choice for Prussian Premiership—Hitler Cancels Meeting of Nazi Representatives—Summon Reichstag

BERLIN, Aug. 15 (AP).—General Kurt von Schleicher, one of the Imperial military leaders who is recognized as the power behind the throne in the present Cabinet, emerged today as a strong possibility for the chancellorship.

The name of Dr. Franz Bracht, deputy federal commissioner in charge of the State of Prussia, was mentioned with the general's in the manoeuvring that was going on in an effort to compose the Cabinet crisis. Dr. Bracht was mentioned for the Prussian Premiership.

This tentative state was set forth in party newspapers which suggested that Von Schleicher was properly neutral to head a cabinet in which Adolf Hitler's National Socialists and the Centre would be represented in a ratio of two to one.

Without issuing any explanation, Hitler suddenly cancelled a meeting of Nazi representatives from all over the country which had been scheduled for tomorrow. It was assumed, the National Socialist leader wanted to have an opportunity to discuss with his closest advisers the situation created by President Paul von Hindenburg's refusal Saturday to turn the Chancellorship over to him.

Fears that the Reichstag might not be summoned into session were set at rest by a Cabinet announcement that it would be convened within the time provided by the constitution and not later than August 30.

WOMAN DIES IN TAXICAB CRASH

VANCOUVER, Aug. 15.—Mrs. Martha W. Whitehead, an aged woman, living at 894 Bute Street, was instantly killed, and William Manford critically injured, when the taxicab driven by the man was in collision with a street car at Bender and Bute Streets this afternoon.

Manford was proceeding north on Bute Street. His passenger was riding in the rear seat. The woman was dead when removed from the wreckage of the automobile and Manford was taken to hospital, where he was found to be suffering from a severely fractured skull.

RUMORS STILL FLY AT OTTAWA

Agreement Is Certain Despite Haste at Decisions and Packing

By B. A. MCKELVIE
Colonist Staff Correspondent
OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—With the plenary session of the Economic Conference set for Thursday, work is being carried forward under terrific tension. Ottawa workers night vastly important decisions must be reached—decisions that may largely change the trade routes of the world.

Rumors follow rumors through the milling crowds in the rotunda of Chateau Laurier. First it is that Britain has been generous in her concessions. Again, that the Mother Country will not abandon her Russian buying. Again, it is a split in the British Cabinet delegation over food tariffs that sets tongues wagging, and still again comes the bogey of revolt in the Canadian council.

With all the scurrying and scampering about by delegates trying to make important decisions and pack their trunks at the same time, there will evolve a successful agreement.

Just how successful the agreement will be as between the United Kingdom and Dominions remains to be seen. On the other hand, there will be many successful agreements between separate Empire units—and these will all add to the prosperity of Canada.

Favors National Cabinet to Help South Australia

ADELAIDE, South Australia, Aug. 15 (CP).—Prospects for the formation of a National Government in South Australia, pledged to support the Premier's plan for the rehabilitation of Australian finances, were brought nearer by a new political pact.

The Parliamentary Labor party, led by Premier Lionel L. Hill, joined forces with the Liberal and Country party, agreeing to sink all political differences and co-operate to insure the return in the next state elections of candidates pledged to support the Premier's plan.

The pact provided that wherever possible the present ministers in Premier Hill's Labor Government will be returned unopposed.

B.C. Aid Telegram Was Misunderstood Says Prime Minister

Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett Indicates No Reflection Was Intended in His Message to Hon. J. W. Jones on Relief Matters

CLEARING up a point which was a matter of considerable comment at the time, Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, in conversation with Premier Talmie recently, removed all misunderstanding arising out of his wire of January 29 to Hon. J. W. Jones as to the course of unemployment relief affairs in this province. The Prime Minister issued the following statement, making it clear that he intended no reflections on the British Columbia ministry.

"The Prime Minister has had brought to his notice certain references in the press to his telegram of January 29, addressed to Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, of British Columbia. One sentence in particular has been seized upon to give an entirely wrong impression to the public. That sentence is as follows:

"Apparently you have used these funds in whole or in part for Provision of the Provincial authorities set forth at that time."

Federal reports on unemployment relief in British Columbia have made it clear that the Dominion had been indebted to the Province at that date to an extent of over $2,000,000 on Dominion account, a matter that has since been satisfactorily adjusted.

SWEETING REORGANIZATION URGED BY CIVIC AUDITORS

That the city advance the penalty date for collection of taxes from October 1 to June 30.

WATERWORKS PROFIT

A doubt that has existed for many years regarding the city's waterworks system was removed by the survey, which reported a net profit of more than $22,000 from the two waterworks systems.

In the preamble to their report, the auditors said that a great deal of criticism had been leveled against the city department, and the doubt that existed as to whether the city made a profit from its waterworks system, the auditors said they had gone into the matter thoroughly. They had found that the Book Lake system had earned a profit of $28,966.16, while the Goldstream system had lost $6,497.33, making a net profit of $22,468.83.

The auditors stated they could recommend no curtailment of services in any department, and that the city was in a sound financial position. It was recommended that the city should make a complete reorganization of its departments, and that the city should make a complete reorganization of its departments, and that the city should make a complete reorganization of its departments.

IS NO DISPUTE

"There is no dispute between the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion as to the amount of money which has been advanced by the Dominion. The Province has accounted to its own Legislature for its distribution. The difference of opinion arose as to that distribution."

The statement was given by the Prime Minister to Premier Talmie after a full and amicable discussion of the whole matter, and was initiated by Mr. Bennett in person. It was released yesterday by Premier Talmie here.

The explanation removes doubt raised by the message at the time of its receipt, and supports fully the contention of the Provincial authorities set forth at that time.

Regarding the lighting system in Victoria, the auditors recommended that the City Council enter into negotiations with the B.C. Electric Railway Company with a view to having that company operate the distribution system. At present the city maintains a staff of eleven to do this work.

A net profit of $22,468.83 was shown in the waterworks department for the year ending December 31, 1931, the auditors reported. In view of the criticism leveled against this department, and the doubt that existed as to whether the city made a profit from its waterworks system, the auditors said they had gone into the matter thoroughly. They had found that the Book Lake system had earned a profit of $28,966.16, while the Goldstream system had lost $6,497.33, making a net profit of $22,468.83.

Royal Observatory Has Been Help to Navigation

Sir Frank Dyson, Astronomer-Royal, Greenwich, Gives Fascinating Address Showing Practical Benefits of Great Science to Seafaring Nation

Greenwich Observatory, the very name of which is inalienably associated with longitude and time, owes its foundation in 1675 to the very practical interest in navigation of one of England's monarchs, Charles II. It has continued to give practical service to a nation essentially seafaring. One of the interesting treasures of its museum is the Harrison chronometer used by Captain Cook, and after him, by Captain Vancouver on their voyages of exploration. Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of the National Council of the Royal Astronomical Society, said that the history of the instrument was doubtless in what are now British Columbian waters long before the planting of a colony here was ever contemplated.

A COINCIDENCE

"Everyone seems to think that astronomers are responsible for the weather, but as a matter of fact it is the meteorologists," Sir Frank was saying just as a deluge of rain struck the roof of the Memorial Hall and drowned his immediately succeeding comments on the relation of sunspots to climate.

The infinitesimal variation of the electric clock invented by Short made this of inestimable value in that very important function of Greenwich Observatory—the determination and distribution of time.

Nowadays time is distributed through the British Broadcasting Company. In addition, Greenwich time is sent twice daily from a powerful station at Rugby, and reaches all parts of the world.

In the United Kingdom telegraphic distribution is maintained through the General Postoffice. The observatory keeps in close touch with the hydrographic office, sees to the repairing and timing of naval chronometers and prepares charts showing the deviation of the magnetic compass from true north.

OTHER WORK

Regular meteorological observations are carried out at Greenwich. Among its more strictly astronomical work, Greenwich includes its traditional determining of the positions of the sun, moon, planets and stars.

While the importance of this for navigation has practically ceased, many important scientific questions still required these observations. Photography, constantly carried on, gave increased knowledge of the sun, and of many thousands of comparatively faint stars.

Astronomy was not taken in a purely serious sense by the speaker, who included in his collection of slides an amusing cartoon by one of Punch's "untrustworthy artists," of the discovery of a comet.

Big Cougar Is Shot at Outer Point

OTHER POINT, Aug. 15.—A 200-pound cougar measuring eight feet from nose to tail was killed here at the end of the week by Reginald Clark, the well known cougar hunter.

The animal's presence in the district was first made manifest by the killing of two valuable Saanen goats from the herd of Mrs. L. Blakeney on one night and of two others on the two following nights.

It is expected that livestock owners will contribute to a fund to compensate Mr. Clark for the loss of two days' work and as an appreciation of a service to the community.

Lancaster Trial Is Nearing Close

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 15.—With nearly two weeks of evidence finally at an end, arguments by counsel over the question whether Haden Clarke committed suicide, or was murdered by Captain W. N. Lancaster, as the culmination of a love triangle, were begun here today. Both sides rested shortly before noon.

Clarke, a young writer, was fatally shot April 21, in the home of Mrs. J. M. Keith-Miller, Lancaster's former flying partner.

THOUSANDS ATTEND RELIGIOUS CEREMONY

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Aug. 15 (AP).—Thirty thousand persons attended an impressive religious ceremony today on the Hill of Slane, County Meath, where St. Patrick is said to have lit the paschal fire in the year of his death.

With solemn ritual, the flame was relighted in the first religious ceremony on the hill since the Reformation. All bishops of the northern provinces were present, as well as 300 priests.

DROWN IN OLD WELL

CANORA, Sask., Aug. 15 (CP).—Three young children are dead here victims of a bathing mishap. They fell down an old well hidden in the centre of a shallow pool of drainage water in which they were paddling. The accident occurred at the farm of Steve Skortz. A younger child, who did not venture into the centre of the pool, saw his companions drop out of sight and screamed for help. The bodies were recovered.

RESEARCH REVEALS ALL-BRAN RICH IN HEALTH-ELEMENTS

Helps Correct Constipation with "Bulk" and Vitamin B; Also Has Iron

Recent scientific research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation. It has "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

These two important food-elements promote regular habits, and help do away with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy, so often the result of constipation.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is mild in action—much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of waste. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using laxatives and drugs—so often habit-forming?

Just eat two tablespoonsfuls of Kellogg's daily—enough for most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Besides, ALL-BRAN brings your body twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Equally tasty as a cereal with milk or cream, or used in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green packaging. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

MEANCE TO PEACE

One wildly-held view is that the formation of the new force is a tactical move to compel the Government to abolish both it and the Irish Republican army, thus removing what Dr. O'Higgins and his associates regard as a menace to future peace.

There appears to be no immediate danger of any clash.

Blue Ribbon Cows And Bulls Arrive For Willows Fair

Famous Herd Represented by Choice Selections
From Bull & Son's Farm—High-Prized
Cattle and Sheep Already Housed

THE Willows fair ground was transformed during the week-end into a colossal farmyard, with hundreds of head of livestock housed in the huge barns that have been repaired and improved to receive the record entry lists.

Yesterday the most outstanding herd of Jersey cattle on the North American continent arrived from Bull & Son's farm, Brampton, Ontario. Some of the choicest imported cows and dairy bulls are now in their stalls and during the course of the week will be groomed in preparation for the show.

Broadlands Royalist, two-year-old son of Right Royal, which took third prize among yearlings at the National Dairy Show in St. Louis last year, is among the twenty-eight head of cattle sent from this farm.

THE VAIN MONARCH
There are ten bulls in this entry, the most outstanding one being Vain Monarch, imported from the island of Jersey, and son of one of the island's most famous sires. He was placed at the National Dairy Show in St. Louis last year; won the reserve grand championship at Victoria in 1931 and the grand championship at Armstrong in the same year. He is three years old and is sire of many fine dairy cows at the Brampton farm.

Brampton Standard Roale and Brampton Standard Theresa, full sisters and daughters of Right Royal, are also imported from the island of Jersey, and are among the best of the breed sires of Brampton.

HIGH PRODUCTION COW
Chief among the dairy cows in this herd, however, is Nice Royal Princess, half-sister of Broadlands Royalist, out of Right Royal. She has the government's silver medal for production. Her production in one year was 9,668 pounds of milk and 554 pounds of fat. Her average test at two years old was 5.73 per cent butterfat.

Brampton Standard Roale and Brampton Standard Theresa, full sisters and daughters of Right Royal, are also imported from the island of Jersey, and are among the best of the breed sires of Brampton.

EXPENSIVE CATTLE
Pioneer Beauty, daughter of Pioneer of Oaklands, a bull which sold for $25,000 two years ago, will attract considerable attention. She is from a daughter of Xenia's Sultan, which was undefeated for five years in the show ring and eventually was sold for $25,000. Xenia's Sultan was one of the greatest bulls known in Jersey herds and his descendant, Pioneer Beauty, gives promise of producing some very fine records.

William Raine is the showman in charge of this fine herd of Jerseys, and he takes great pride in explaining the fine points of his cattle to those who are interested.

YOUTHFUL SHOWMAN
Sidney Brown, youthful showman, of Bellebeek Farm, north of Moose

Jaw, has brought some fine specimens of Aberdeen Angus cows and bulls, owned by W. J. F. Warren.

There are eleven blacks in this entry and one nurse cow. Loia of Moose Jaw is the most outstanding one of the lot. She was the grand champion Aberdeen Angus at the Royal Cattle Show in Toronto last year and has not been beaten this summer.

One is surprised when introduced to the showman, he is so youthful. But fellow showmen speak of him as an authority on Aberdeen Angus. He has been showing them ever since he could hold a rope in his hands.

In the sheep barns there are many entries from prairie points. R. McLaren, of Shellbrook, Sask., arrived yesterday with his herd of sixty sheep, made up of Shropshires, Oxford, Hampshire, Suffolks and Leicester.

NEVER BEEN BEATEN
His ram C.P.R. No. 8 has never been beaten, while his Hampshire have lost only one out of eight shows. There is one Shropshire ewe which has won the grand championship everywhere she has been shown this year. She has been shown at Brandon, Weyburn, Saskatoon and Regina, and is expected to place high, if not win the championship in the Willows show.

However, there is keen competition. Robert Ball, from Edmonton, who arrived yesterday with thirteen head of Oxford sheep, fifteen head of Tamworth and Yorkshire pigs, will be a strong contender not only for sheep honors but also pigs. He has some Tamworths that weigh 850 pounds, while the Yorkshire breed weighs as high as 800 pounds.

The Clarinda Farm, another prairie entry, has sent seventeen head of sheep, mostly Suffolks, and others are expected.

CALLED TO REST
There passed away at the Jubilee Hospital last evening Wilfred Andrew "Bill" Macdonald, in his fourteenth year, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Macdonald, recently of Penikese.

He leaves to mourn his passing, besides his mother and father, three brothers, Jeff, Frank and Harold, all of this city. Funeral announcements will be made later.

FUNERAL AT SIDNEY
The funeral of Joseph Edward Tahouney, who passed away on Saturday will take place this morning, the cortege leaving the residence at Sidney at 10:15 o'clock, and fifteen minutes later mass will be celebrated at St. Elizabeth's Church, Sidney. The remains will be laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery, West Saanich. Flowers left at the Sands Mortuary Ltd. will be delivered.

VETERANS TO GATHER AT REVELSTOKE FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

REVELSTOKE, Aug. 15.—The British Columbia Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion and Women's Auxiliary will hold their sixth annual convention at Revelstoke Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Sessions will be presided over by T. A. Barnard, Nanaimo, head of the Legion, and Mrs. Barnard, provincial president of the auxiliary.

Among the speakers expected to address the convention are Hon. R. W. Bruhn, Minister of Public Works; W. K. Ewing, M.P. for Kootenay West, and Dr. W. H. Sutherland, M.P.P., Revelstoke, former provincial minister of public works.

CANADA HOLDS EMPIRE IDEAL

Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin Gives Inspiring Address to Canadian Club

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—Three ideals inspire the people of Canada, ideals derived from the races in which the civilization of this country was cradled. Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, leader of the United Kingdom delegation, told the Canadian Club today. The first was instinct in the religious life of the country of which, he said, it would be presumptuous of him to speak.

The second was the respect of Canadians for law and order; the third, maintenance of the standard of education and the building up of a tradition of better service.

VERSATILE FIGURE
Britain's former Prime Minister revealed himself today as much more than a figure in contemporary politics, a man with interests utterly dissociated from the tumult of modern public affairs. The scholar, the introspection of the philosopher, something of the visionary, who sees in the burning of the sun the dawn of the new creation and the beginnings of man's aspirations and achievements, all the influences which with reading and clear thinking develop, were present in Mr. Baldwin's speech. Of politics he had nothing to say; of the Empire Conference, much that was interesting; of the press conference, he had gathered of Canada, a great deal.

AVOIDING ISOLATION
He made clear a variety of things relative to the conference. That none of the delegations were prompted by a desire for international isolation, "undesirable from the standpoint either of the peace or prosperity of the world," was crisply emphasized. But, co-operation for the improvement of Imperial trade, the conference was thus contributing to human betterment and aspirations that embodied nothing mean or sordid.

The British leader recalled that while the Empire may have grown from a desire for wider trade and better markets, nevertheless in the last analysis it was not built up on trade agreements, nor could it be maintained solely by tariffs and preferences. Its continuation depended upon a clear conviction of its ultimate goal, which was the kingdom of heaven on earth.

"BUILD FOR ETERNITY"
"We build for eternity," said Mr. Baldwin. "From the conference may come not only material benefits, but a great advance in our thoughts and an appeal to the youth of the Commonwealth to make it what it ought to be," Mr. Baldwin concluded. This he characterized as "a metaphorical throwing off our coats and hardening the hands." The conference would set forth the unity of the Commonwealth. In the words of Professor Eddington: "Our life on earth is but the opportunity to work at and participate in the work of creation."

Mr. Baldwin's address was heard by all the heads of delegations to the conference, and a vote of thanks was proposed by Rt. Hon. Sir George Perley.

ARE DOING WELL AT CONFERENCE

Hon. A. C. Willis, of Australia, Says Good Feeling Is Being Created

Hon. A. C. Willis, of Sydney, Australia, arrived in the city yesterday on his way home to his antipodes. He has been Agent-General of the Australian Commonwealth in London for some years and has just vacated that position and is returning to his home.

Mr. Willis expects a great deal of good to come from the Economic Conference, now nearing a close in Ottawa. On his way he stopped off at Ottawa for two days and had an opportunity of seeing what was being done.

"It is a very difficult task that they have to handle," said he when seen at the Empress Hotel after his arrival. "They are making as good progress as could be expected, however."

The great thing that will be accomplished by the conference, in the opinion of Mr. Willis, will be the creation of a better feeling among the different parts of the Empire. This, he found, was taking place and, with the better acquaintance among the statesmen of all parts of the Empire, other things will be more easily accomplished in the days to come.

UNEMPLOYED MEETING

HOPE FOR PACT WITH DOMINION

South African Delegates to Conference Confident of Treaty With Canada

OTTAWA, Aug. 15 (CP).—Conclusion of a trade treaty with Canada before they leave to return home is the "earnest hope" of the South African delegation to the Imperial Economic Conference, a high official of that body declared today. "And we plan to leave at the end of this week," he added.

The intention of the two widely separated dominions to negotiate a trade treaty was announced before the conference opened and it has been the general belief the occasion of the conference would be seized as an opportunity to reach an agreement.

MAINTAIN SECRECY
But the deliberations have not been concluded, even if the major points upon which to lay the basis of a treaty have been agreed upon, and both parties are maintaining the same secrecy as to their negotiations as that which marks the entire conference.

It is known South Africa, whose export trade to Canada was only slightly more than $4,000,000 last year as compared with over $9,000,000 spent in the Dominion, seeks to bring about a more equal balance. South Africa desires mainly to increase her sales in Canada of maize, wines, tobacco, sugar, citrus fruits and manganese. Her sales to Canada have grown rapidly in recent years.

VALUE OF PRODUCTS
Agricultural products make up nearly half of Canada's exports to South Africa, with iron and its products, valued at $2,500,000 last year, coming second. It is understood an effort will be made to have Canada transfer a large share of her demand for citrus fruits from non-Empire countries to Africa.

Oak Bay Fails to Name Principal

The question of the appointment of a principal of the Oak Bay High School to succeed George M. Billings, who resigned to take the headmastership of the University School, has not been settled. The trustees of the municipality met last evening and gave consideration to the matter, but failed to make an appointment.

NOTED EXPLORER PASSES
NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—A special cable to The New York Times today reported the death at Bourne-mouth, England, of Capt. Paul G. Weatherly, seventy-two, geographer and African explorer, who discovered the source of the Congo.

BURNABY CONTINUES DIRECT RELIEF PLAN

EDMONDS, Aug. 15.—Burnaby will carry on with direct relief as usual, despite a resolution of the council two weeks ago, notifying the Provincial Government that the municipality will not be able to continue relief later than August 15.

Reeve W. A. Pritchard and Council L. Lahr, chairman of finance, so stated today. They also expressed belief negotiations with the Provincial Government concerning financial assistance in connection with relief are progressing favorably.

RECOVER BODY AT SHAWNIGAN

Dragging Operations Successful in Case of One Victim of Accident

The body of Marjorie Gilliland, who, with Wilfred Francis, was drowned in Shawnigan Lake last Tuesday, was recovered at noon on Sunday after several days of dragging operations directed by members of the bereaved families.

Efforts to recover the body of Wilfred Francis failed yesterday, but dragging operations will be resumed at 4 o'clock this morning. A chain drag, suggested by a diver of the Pacific Salvage Company, who was sent down into the lake, was used. The success in finding the body was greatly due to the kindness of the Shawnigan Lake Lumber Company, which loaned its steamboat and other equipment, without which success would have been impossible.

The body has been taken to Sands Funeral Parlors, but no date has been set for the inquest or funeral. It is hoped that within the next twenty-four hours the remains of Mr. Francis will be recovered.

PEACE HOPE OF NEW PRESIDENT

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Aug. 15 (AP).—Eusebio Ayala was inaugurated today for a four-year term as President of Paraguay. He wrote into his inaugural address his policy of conciliation with Bolivia in the Gran Chaco dispute. Paraguay, he said, is and always has been, ready to submit the issue to any conciliatory tribunal. He asserted, however, that Bolivia's declaration she needs the Paraguay River as an outlet to the sea is merely a pretext for conquering the Chaco.

Reason is the mistress and queen of all things.—Cicero.

JEWS RETURN TO PALESTINE

Rev. Dr. J. G. Inkster Addresses Big Audience at Metropolitan

"To my mind, the return of the Jews to Palestine is one of the most significant signs of the times," declared Rev. Dr. J. G. Inkster, pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, formerly pastor of First United Church, Victoria, in the address on "Palestine and the Fulfillment of Biblical Prophecy," which he gave before an almost capacity audience at Metropolitan Church last night.

Illustrated with more than fifty lantern slides, the address had pictorial as well as historical interest. Many of the pictures were collected by Dr. Inkster during a visit to the Holy Land two years ago, and carried confirmation of his statement that Palestine was one of the most progressive countries in the world today.

AGRICULTURE ADVANCING
In agriculture, the country was making great advances. Since the war, more than 100,000 Jews had returned to Palestine—doctors, lawyers, students, mechanics—and nearly all going on the land, "reclaiming the old heartstones, raising fresh the old altars." Already the Jews had established more than 100 new farm colonies.

Dr. Inkster maintained that the land of Palestine was particularly well adapted to farming, being rich and fertile, and responding well to modern methods of agriculture by yielding phenomenal crops of wheat, oats, barley, and all kinds of vegetables and fruits.

The progress of Palestine was also seen in the development of her industries. Since the war, twelve millions had been invested in the industries of Palestine and 150 new industries started, including the Ruthenberg hydro works at the Jordan, and the vast industries connected with the extraction of salt, potash, gypsum and sulphates from the Dead Sea.

OTHER SIGNS
In education, cultural life, public health, and other respects, Palestine was making significant progress. In addition to the public schools there are high schools and technical schools. Lord Balfour, in 1925, opened a Hebrew university in which there are departments for original research equal to any on this continent. In all these schools and colleges the language is the ancient language of the Jews, viz., Hebrew, settling for ever the problem of how to re-nationalize a people coming from Poland, Germany, France, England and America.

"In all these signs of progress in Palestine we see the hand of God, the fulfillment of prophecy. For centuries they have been living without a home, without a government, flag or ruler. The prophecies foretold that the Jews would return in unbelief. That is being fulfilled to the letter today," said the speaker, who proceeded to interpret Scriptural prophecy for the Palestine of tomorrow. One thing he was certain, that the Jews were to be persecuted into forming strange alliances, culminating in great tribulation before the coming of the Messiah.

Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson, pastor of First United Church, presided.

Pope Symmachus was the first to build a residence on the Vatican, Rome.

WHEAT "STRIKE" GAINING GROUND

Thousands of Farmers Said to Be Holding Crop for "Dollar a Bushel"

BISMARCK, N.D., Aug. 15.—The North Dakota wheat "strike" went into effect today with supporters claiming thousands of farmers will begin holding their wheat until the price reaches $1 a bushel.

Although the effect of withholding grain from market was conjectural, and viewed in some quarters as somewhat dubious of success, Dell M. Willis, Tolna, N.D., a grower and author of the plan, said the movement had gained headway in the two Dakotas, Montana, Minnesota, Washington, Oregon, Kansas, Idaho, Texas, Oklahoma and Nebraska.

Farmers have been asked to sign and adhere to resolutions setting the minimum price of wheat from the 1932 crop, having as its basis the Winnipeg price, plus the 42-cent tariff with the usual discount for lower grades.

Governor George F. Shafer, North Dakota, and Governor J. E. Erickson, Montana, Willis said, have endorsed the plan, as have a number of chambers of commerce and commercial clubs.

In announcing final arrangements for the official opening of the British Columbia Agricultural Association's fair at the Willows, August 22 to 27, W. H. Mearns, secretary, stated that all exhibitors and stallholders should be ready not later than 1 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Plans for the official opening have been changed and Premier S. F. Tolmie will declare the fair open at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon instead of Tuesday, as was first announced.

Mayor David Leeming, Hon. William Atkinson, E. M. Whyte, president of the association; Alderman T. W. C. Hawkins, Alderman H. O. Litchfield, Alderman W. D. Todd, D. D. McTavish and George Sangster, all directors of the association, will participate in the opening ceremony, which will be held in the main agricultural building.

Exhibitors are now busy engaged in arranging their display, but Mr. Mearns yesterday urged that every one entered should be ready by 1 o'clock Monday, so that when the fair is opened at 2:30 o'clock all arrangements will have been completed.

The appeal is particularly urgent this year, inasmuch as record entries in all divisions make an early start necessary.

The 3rd Victoria (St. Barnabas) Troop is having its annual camp at the Victoria district camp, Burgoyne Bay, Saltspring Island. There are twenty-eight boys from the 3rd Victoria Troop, which is divided into four patrols. They are the Lions, Owls, Beavers and Wolves.

The whole camp consists of six different troops, divided into sixteen patrols in all. Each day three patrols are given out to the three best patrols. ## OFFER TO HELP PAY FOR FIELD

Esquimalt Club Willing to Contribute Towards Making New Grounds

A move instigated by officials of the Esquimalt Football Club, by which that organization would contribute towards the installing of a football ground in the new Fairbairn Park, in Esquimalt, was outlined to the Municipal Council last night. J. Bryant and W. Bromley spoke on behalf of the club and assured the council of its full assistance in providing a suitable field in the municipality.

Mr. Bryant stated that the club officials felt that the money they were able to raise between $200 and $300 in the district, which would be given to the council to spend on the football ground. He pointed out that last year the club paid more than $200 to the city in rent for city fields, which would go to the municipal board if the field were completed. The Esquimalt team, which he said, proved best on the Island last year, had no home field and was forced to play and practice on city grounds.

Mr. Bromley substantiated Mr. Bryant's remarks, adding that he felt that an excellent football ground might be located in the park. He said that the club would be co-operating in the move, stating the council would do all it could to complete the field.

MAYOR CHOSEN CITY DELEGATE

Will Present Unemployment Relief Cost Proposals Before Premier Bennett

Mayor David Leeming was appointed by the City Council at its meeting last night as a member of the provincial delegation to wait upon Premier R. B. Bennett to discuss matters of unemployment relief. The appointment was made after the mayor had given a report on the conference of Western Premiers and mayors held in Edmonton recently. It was felt by the council that the mayor should have someone in Ottawa to fight Victoria's case. Mayor Leeming said that Alderman George Miller had been appointed to represent Vancouver.

TO INVESTIGATE ESSONDALE COSTS

City Relief Committee to Check Patients Credited to Victoria by Government

An investigation of the cost of Victoria patients in the Essondale Mental Hospital will be held by the relief committee of the city council. The April bill sent to the city by the Provincial Government, amounting to $3,080, was sent to the relief committee by the council at its meeting last night.

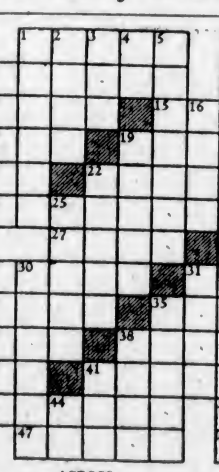

Alderman Alex. Peden, chairman of this committee, told the council that the list of patients debited to Victoria should be investigated just the same as the mothers' pensions list. Such an inquiry, he said, would undoubtedly reduce the city's bill, inasmuch as it was generally found that many were placed on the list from Victoria who really were from other municipalities.

The alderman also stated that a conference of Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster relief officers would be held in Vancouver shortly to discuss the cost of mental patients.

CONSIDERING KIDD REPORT

Provincial Executive, After Day's Discussion, Meets Committee Today

In an all-day session yesterday the Provincial Executive discussed the report of the Kidd committee on recent has affairs, preparatory to granting an audience to the committee this morning at 10 o'clock. If it also discussed the Government's attitude toward the report and the larger question of future provincial policies, the fact was not mentioned. Officially nothing was said, other than that the Cabinet would receive the committee this morning.

Behind the scenes, there is reason to believe members of the Government had plenty to say, as detailed consideration was given to the report and other changes, including a comment filed in respect to various of its sections.

From all sides it was apparent the ministry is preparing to take its burden on at a time. Private efforts made to force a coalition, a reduction in the Legislature, a smaller Cabinet, still further reduction in provincial outlays, and many other changes, including an early election, will not find an answer within forty-eight hours.

TO SETTLE REPORT

As its first hurdle the Government is expected to settle the question of the Kidd report and its publication. Premier Tolmie on his arrival home last week gave an advance indication of the view of the ministry on the report and the deletion of these may be invited. What the Government will do about its own affairs as a ministry is likely to be divorced completely from the discussions of the moment. On this phase of the situation Premier Tolmie has already indicated that he will require time to take up many matters with his ministers, and will not be rushed into a haphazard decision on any point. In that event, all that will be the Kidd report, its recommendations, the Government's initial views on these, and arrangements for publication of the document.

Nearly all members of the Cabinet will be in the city for the meeting.

PRICE ELLISON HOME IN OKANAGAN VALLEY DAMAGED BY FLAMES

VERNON, Aug. 15 (CP).—Price Ellison's home, the centre of many historic events in the development of the Okanagan Valley, and noted for its hospitality during the period of the military camp in 1915 training days, was destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon. The ground floor was saved from the flames but the two upper stories were wrecked, being damaged to the extent of more than $15,000. Through efforts of most of the men of the community, valuable furniture, stirring silver and large quantities of cut glass and china were salvaged.

Buy British Columbia Goods—Nova Scotia and Ontario livestock farms are increasing their interest in British Columbia goods. It was stated yesterday, at the Provincial Department of Agriculture, that successful deals made by Island and other producers, recently, have been followed up by repeat orders and many inquiries.

The visitors make their home in Washington, D.C., the Dean traveling back and forth to the seat of the university at Baltimore, Md. The visit to Victoria is taken as a vacation tour solely by Dean Tallaferra.

Court of Revision—The regular monthly court of revision on the provincial voters' list in Victoria City and Esquimalt, were held yesterday at the Courthouse, Bastion Street. There was no application in either electoral division on this occasion. It was announced later by George H. Mabon, the registrar, that the next court of revision will be held on September 19.

Will Enter Fair—British Columbia exhibitors will have exhibits in nearly all the fifty-four classes of grain and seed displays at the world's grain congress to be held at Regina, Sask., this week. It was stated at the Legislative Buildings yesterday, in addition, an extensive exhibit of livestock will be sent to the Regina Agricultural Fair to be held at about the same time.

Woodward Complaints—The recommendation of the city land commissioner that all wood yard licenses be canceled at the end of the year was referred to the city solicitor and zoning board for report by the City Council at its meeting held last night. It is proposed that in the meantime the city investigate complaints regarding wood yards, so that more suitable locations for such yards can be suggested before new licenses are issued.

Earwig Pest—A report of areas in Esquimalt infected with earwigs was presented by the municipal engineer to the Esquimalt Council last night. The engineer stated that the pests were particularly thick in some places, and from information he had received the estimated cost of one application of poison to combat the earwigs would be $40. He recommended immediate action if the council decided to proceed. The report was received and filed.

Make Appointment—Chief of Police H. W. V. Pecknold was appointed assistant fire marshal by the Esquimalt Council at its meeting last night. A request from the municipal engineer for four new tires for the municipal garbage truck, was received, and the tires ordered purchased at a cost of $35.10 each. An application from A. Calderwood to have a ditch installed on Client Street was referred to the engineer.

Interested in League—Acting through Hon. W. A. McKenzie, chairman of the unemployment committee of the Cabinet, provincial officials moved yesterday to ascertain all details of the Tudor Rose League, a movement in support of the purchase of home and British projects, originating in London. Mr. McKenzie has been a consistent advocate of British Columbia, Canadian and Empire buying preferences, in that order, and is much interested in preliminary advice as to operations of the League recently received.

The inspector paid a compliment to the mothers who started each day by getting the children off to school. The greatness of a country, he said, did not lie in its immense

Your Luck for Today

Swedes used to think they would be victorious if they started battle on Tuesday.

The full moon rising on Tuesday brings luck to lovers.

But if you look at the full moon in August, you will be the victim of slander. The only way to avoid this is to have someone throw stones at your house.

Good luck or bad luck comes in streaks; one piece of luck will be followed by two just like it.

He who wears three locust wings in his hat will have good luck in finding things.

THE LUCKY LAWRENCES

By KATHLEEN MORRIS

CHAPTER X

Gail would not give in. She slept, waked, breakfasted, went to lunch, and at some club in whose chintzy dressing-room the girls were not only rude to her, watched her first polo game. She would not give in. Van saw nothing. He was in great spirits, rushing from one thing to another—cocktails, bridge, tennis, swimming, polo, golf—at breakfast speed. By Saturday night all these were exhausted, radio and phonograph had done their worst, and it was decided that Mocker's offered the only possible amusement.

This was about nine o'clock. Into cars they all accordingly piled and off into the night they went. Lenore was with Van in the front seat of the roadster, Gail and Fred Hunter in the rumble. But Van had been nice to Gail just in the last hour, had given her the sort of affectionate attention she had been living for, and his discontented, "Why don't I ever get my girl?" more than consoled Gail not only for the distribution for the trip but to the idea of going to Mocker's at all.

Another bleak-looking table with a limp spotty cloth on it. They were all so tired they almost laid their heads on the cloth and Gail was scared when she saw the hip-flasks and the red wine again. Van had driven like a crazy man on those steep circuitous roads coming over; he certainly would not be in a condition to drive more carefully going back. Of course they would get back to the ranch somehow but it was frightening.

Funny to think of herself at home again tomorrow night, playing solitaire. Well, one thing was sure; if she ever married Van Murchison or anyone like him she would cure him of this sort of craziness. She looked at him, beside her at the table, and thought that he was much the best-looking, much the nicest of them all. He was too fine for this kind of thing. Any man would be ruined to close it. Standing beside it, both hands raised, she looked down at a pool of bright light at the tavern doorway below. Motor lights, house lights, were shining fully on the stumbling stupid party that had preceded them from the dining-room.

"Come here, Duchess, that's the color hair I mean!" Lucia said suddenly at Gail's elbow, also looking down. "Ash blonde—and that's a real one. Look!"

Gail looked, too. Looked down at the bareheaded, loudly laughing girl, a big racoon-coated man was helping her into a roadster. She recognized the ash-blond hair, the curve of soft cheek.

It was Ariel.

Gail had a sick moment of vertigo of terror. What she saw, what it signified, where she was and where Ariel was—everything rushed together in a complete demoralization of mind and sense.

She remained at the window, still holding tightly to the sash that she had pushed automatically downward. The lights in the black night below her wheeled and flashed; engines roared, the cars were gone. After a while she turned and followed the other girls downstairs, not knowing where she was nor what she was doing. Always her hands shook and her lips trembled. There had been a rearrangement and she was next to Van on the drive home. The cars shot away into the foggy night! The big engines throbbed on the grade.

When they reached the top of the long rise Gail spoke for the first time.

"Van, you say those men and the two girls—the ones who were making such much noise?"

She hesitated. She could not go on and betray Ariel!

"Didn't notice 'em specially. Why?" Van asked.

"Oh, nothing!" And Gail, actually withering, saying the soundless words of prayers with trembling lips, added no more. But her soul was sick. She needed sympathy, needed it desperately. She needed help, advice, but she could not get it here. It was like a horrible dream. She was miles—miles from home, from Phil and Edith and security and goodness and help. She was not even going home now. She was going back to Farnham.

"Van, how far are we from home?" "From Los Gatos? Let's see—" "No. From Clipperville." "Oh, Clipperville? Oh, well, about seventy miles." They seemed to fall on her heart like so many separate blows. Was somebody driving Ariel seventy miles home tonight? What was she doing away from home; where did Phil and Edith think she was?

The nightmare went on and on. Van was happily conversational now, but that only made part of it. Gail was mad with anxiety, burning with fever. His words only fretted her. Perhaps Edith and Phil were scouring the town for Ariel, telephoning Dorothy, telephoning the Loveless! And she not there! It was impossible that twelve hours must pass before she could be home again and know what had happened! They proved to be the longest through which she had ever lived.

Vaguely secondary things penetrated the flaming wall of thought that shut her in. She realized, alone in her comfortable cabin room, that she was not going to sleep. The clock's hands stood motionless enough at the half hour after three. Darkness outside, so it was night. She was up on the Chippa ranch, awake in the night. They had gone to Mocker's!

Then she must have fallen asleep for she was awakened by the other girls' laughter and voices at ten, and roused herself, stiff and cold. She took a shower in the deserted cabin and crept down to the main cabin for breakfast, only anxious to avoid notice, to secure the earliest possible escape for home.

This attitude perhaps, the indifferent absent mood, was what she might successfully have taken all the time. Everyone was nice to her now; she was suddenly one of them. Van moved his place to sit next to her, and even the haughty Lenore said thoughtfully, as she admiringly studied Gail's pale face: "I simply adore that shadowy Russian sort of skin!"

They were all going up to San Mateo, for it appeared that Van had to take the place of a missing polo player; everyone was very much excited about the game. It would all have been smooth sailing today. But she was in a fever to get home. Van's arguments, his pleading, fell on deaf ears.

"Come on, be a sport! We'll leave the club this morning at 9 a.m. and from 9 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. The danger periods are from noon to 1:45 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Astrological conditions on August 16 appear too unsettled to point to any glittering results, and progress will only be made through rigid, and perhaps painful, effort. Personal attachments will suffer rude jolts, and family bickerings will be disrupting features of the day. Nervous health should prevail. The child born on this August 16 will possess an even, amiable disposition and will be proud of its personal appearance. Admiration will be the breath of life to one of its "make-up," and it will aim to please through its words or acts. It will not seek responsibility, and will rather shirk hard work.

You love the luxuries of life, if born on August 16, and are a worshipping of things. Fine flowers are not grown by fairies, but by the man whose back is sore with digging, and so it is with many of the things for which you yearn, but for which you will not dig. You would like to brush aside the tedious preliminary steps which most people have to take to reach the goals of their desire.

You may always continue to be one of the world's underdogs, because you are unwilling to play second fiddle before you are asked enough to play first. You are too afraid of public opinion, and have too much false pride to do many things which you would not only like but ought to do. Your confidence is not very staunch, and you generally travel with the crowd. Rather a poor judge of character, you will learn as you grow older to examine people's motives before accepting their statements in full.

A quick temper is a very serious handicap to you. Trifles cause you undue annoyance, although in an emergency you are cool and collected. You are very entertaining when in good spirits, but very poor company when feeling out of sorts. Your home life will be too full of "spats" to be an example of peace and harmony.

for some things," his aunt added hospitably. "I can send a message to your sister."

"I'll go with whomever you send!" She leaped at the chance. She could stand nothing else—think of nothing else, but home.

In the end she had her way and was established in the roomy, empty back of the big closed car, with Mason and Annie in the front seat. Van saw her off reproachfully.

"Why don't you stay and swim, anyway? It's noon; you'll cook—driving home through the valley!"

"I can't! I promised Ariel—"

"Oh, Ariel nothing! Come on, have a change of heart and let's swim! And then we'll go up to San Mateo—"

His laughter, the grip of his big brown hand, would have been irresistible twenty-four hours ago. But Gail was hardly conscious of them now. Absently, apologetically, she persisted, said her farewells.

The world that was all pleasure—swimming, bridge, polo, tennis, frocks, trips—closed behind her as a pool closes over a stone. The big car rumbled down into the searing heat of the valley, floundered for a few miles on dirt roads and reached the highway, to take its place meekly in the long file of Sunday traffic.

Well, she would be home before three o'clock. She waited. Ariel. She would be rushing into the old house. She would find Phil there, haggard and wild, Edith stricken. Sam making night-night suggestions about dragging the river and notifying the police.

"We Lawrences can never hold our heads after this again," she thought. Not that it mattered. If Ariel, frightened and sobered, were home, were safe!

Gail's heart was suffocating her. She was rushing from the back seat into the heavenly green shadows of the old garden and catching up her heavy suitcase ran for the side door.

On the threshold of the quiet shaded kitchen she stopped short. Edith was dividing her attention between a light reflection of artichokes and bread pudding and a book, "Martin Chuzzlewit." Ariel, dainty and cool, was sitting at the other end of the kitchen table, cleaning gloves in gasoline.

For a moment Gail's sense of feeling made Gail feel actually dizzy and weak. But if Ariel saw anything amiss her smile of surprise and welcome gave no sign of it, and Edith's delight covered all other emotions for a space.

"Oh, Gail, we didn't expect you until supper! Oh, darling, did you see? I've been thinking and thinking—what you've not had lunch!"

Edith was in her arms, was racing about the kitchen eagerly mixing tea, taking her from the old black jannaped breadbox. Ariel got up from the table to come and bestow one of her strange kisses. Gail, seated at her place, pushed off her damp, pale forehead, felt that she was still in the dream and that things had shifted themselves about on all sides strangely, as they did in dreams.

"But tell us, tell us, tell us!" Edith pleaded.

"And what did you do last night?" Gail could finally ask when the general excitement of her sisters had been pretty generally reviewed.

"Ariel was with Dorothy Camp. So the boys and I had to console each other."

"Was that fun?" Gail asked, feeling that it was somebody else talking, that it was all a part in a play, the clocks of their Sunday night charades.

"Pun! They stayed at the Fairmont," said the eager Edith.

Then—then the girl at Mocker's—then—then she felt her sisters' first impulse to tell her sisters of her sickness and fright died away. She dared not risk that yet.

Empire Athletes Show Great Form At Southern Meet

British Two-Mile Relay Team Sets New World's Record—Two Canadians Big Factors in Victory—Empire Girls' Team Is Victorious

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—Honors in the quadrennial athletic competition between the British Empire and the United States went to the latter Sunday, but most of the glory went to the Empire. Two world records were beaten, one was equalled, and two meet records shattered when the Olympic athletes of this country met Empire competitors in ten events.

Empire mile, J. V. Powell, Britain; Phil Edwards, Hamilton, Alex Wilson, Montreal, and Tom Hampson, Britain's 800-metre Olympic champion, made a walk-away of the two-mile relay, which they won in the world record time of 7 minutes 40.2 seconds, compared to the old mark of 7:41.2.

Powell started the Empire four off by opening up a commanding lead, and each man increased it until the finish, when Hampson finished sixty yards in the van of his opponent.

Aida Wilson, Toronto, figured largely in the lowering of the other universal mark, when she pressed Simone Schaller, United States, from start to finish in the 80-metre hurdles. The American girl's time was 11.6 seconds.

An Olympic champion, Percy Beard, equaled his world record in the 120-yard hurdles, when he raced to victory in his specialty over two teammates. He covered the obstacles in 14.2.

BRITISH TEAM WINS

The four-mile relay proved another easy romp for the British force.

Another man, J. F. Cornes, England's mile champion, hooked up with Gene Venzke, American, in the last lap. Lovelock, New Zealand, were the other members of the winning team. The time was 17:39.4.

With Edwards running anchor, the Empire team, W. J. Walters, South Africa, Wright and Joubert, easily won the one-mile medley relay in 3:24.9.

MISS LEEMING WINS OPENING MATCH IN U.S.

Victoria tennis star, defeated Anne Page in American Title Play.

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Aug. 15 (AP).—Stripped of much of its accustomed glamour by the absence of the champion, Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, and England's leading stars, the women's United States tennis championship moved through the opening round today with no upsets and very little excitement.

Helen Jacobs, an overwhelming favorite to attain the title she has sought for these many years, was accorded a bye in the initial round. Mrs. Lawrence A. Harper alone, of the seeded players, failed to brush aside her first rival in two sets. The left-handed star was extended to dispose of Eleanor Goss, of New York, by scores of 6-2, 7-5.

Marjorie Leeming, Victoria, former Canadian champion, scored the first victory of the tournament, defeating Anne Page, Philadelphia, 6-2, 2-6, 7-5.

FAVORITES WIN AT GORGE VALE

Select Advance to Next Rounds of Women's Championship on Local Links

Favorites survived first-round matches in the women's championship of the Gorge Vale Golf Club over the week-end. Mrs. H. F. Hodges, medalist, came through with a 4 and 3 victory over Mrs. J. A. Wiley. Of the few matches played in the championship and on the afternoon of the 14th, eight of them ended on the afternoon of the 14th.

Although the members of his team were playing here for the first time, Page himself is no stranger to these parts. He brought his first organized team here in 1922 and played at the Bay Street Arms and Club in 1923.

With another one of his world's champion aggregations and performed at the High School gym. This evening, at 6:30 o'clock, Page will be interviewed over CPCT by "Scotty" Dows, who will endeavor to extract from the Prairie coach some of the secrets of his success for the benefit of Victorians who will be listening in.

Yesterday afternoon the team were the guests of the city at a tea at the Empress Hotel. Mayor David Leeming, Aldermen James Adam and Alex. Peden represented the city. Mrs. Percy Page and Mrs. J. C. Dows looked after the guests.

Last night, after a sixteenth trip over Marine Drive, the Grads were the guests of Gordon Woodrider, well-known local basketball official, at his home at Gordon Head. The local team and Coach Bob Whyte were also present and an enjoyable evening was spent.

This morning the visiting quintette will hold a light workout at the High School gym at 10:30 o'clock. After lunch, the party will be taken to Bulcher's Gardens. The Grads will leave tomorrow afternoon and play a game at Prince Rupert en route home.

Speaking about the team's trip to San Francisco, Coach Page stated they stacked up against the crack Y.M.C.A. men's quintette in their first exhibition and held their own up to the interval, the score being 16-11. In the last part of the second half the "V" coach ran in a flock of strong reserves to win out.

Leading Stocks at Eastern Exchanges Close With Rally

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 (AP).—A resumption of the advance in the stock market today, despite a moderate pace of trading, made sweeping headway in the last hour to the extreme discomfiture of bears, who had expected last week's reaction to carry further.

The market was dull and somewhat hesitant during much of the day, but buyers found a dearth of nearby offerings in the afternoon, with the result the market was able to retrace most of the ground lost in the sell-off since the peak levels of the recovery were recorded at the middle of last week.

Rails led the advance with per centual rise, carrying the price average of twenty carrier issues to within a small fraction of last week's peak.

The upturn appeared to result primarily from a drying up of the recent selling.

The gold stock of the United States took a sharp jump, reflecting a substantial release of earmarked metal in connection with the refunding of the Paris-Lyon-Mediterranean Railway bonds, which matured today.

Case was again a high flyer, rallying 7 points to 53. American Telephone was a feature, up 4 1/2. In the rails, New York Central rose 3 1/4, and Pennsylvania about 3 1/2.

United States Steel, General Electric, Radio preferred, B. United Aircraft and Westinghouse were among many issues up 2 or more.

The bond market maintained a firm position, although the trading volume was the smallest in around two weeks.

Price gains were recorded by some of the low-priced rails and various utilities.

Outside Strength Pushes Values Higher at Winnipeg Grain Market

WINNIPEG, Aug. 15 (CP).—Strong Liverpool cables teamed up with good outside support to produce advances of an even cent in all wheat futures on the Grain Exchange here today.

October closed at 59 1/2. December at 60 5/8 to 60 3/4, and May at 65 1/8.

Very little actual export business could be traced to pit operations, but there appeared to be moderately good support of another kind, and prices showed gains of 1-2 cents at the high points, which held stubbornly even in the closing minutes, when a little more wheat came out. Liverpool's strength seemed attributable to a combination of factors.

Hedging pressure did not assume large proportions, although the movement in the country is steadily increasing, and elevator companies will soon be offering freely.

Trading in cash wheat during the morning was slow. Demand for the top grades of red spring wheat continued good, but offerings were very light and sales were restricted.

Interest in all coarse grain commodities was light, and the only export trade in barley and a few odd cars of oats for domestic use.

SUNDAY TRAINS BRING PROFITS

Low-Rate Excursions on Italian State Railways Prove Popular

ROME, Aug. 15 (UP).—On an average, 35,000 Italians take advantage of the low-rate excursions offered by the Italian State Railways every Sunday. This has turned out to be one of the most profitable forms of enterprise undertaken by the Ministry of Communications, and while money may be lost on the high-priced de luxe trains because they travel only partially filled, a nice profit goes to the roads for the wretchedly cheap Sunday excursions.

While one can travel on these excursions from Rome to Venice, some 380 miles, return trip for $3, the trains are always full and there is no lost space for unused chairs or berths. The United Press was informed by the Italian tourist commission's office that a profit of at least 10 per cent is made on every trip.

SUNDAY TRADE

Besides the local beaches and playgrounds of every community do well on the Sunday trade. Rome's beach, located fifteen miles from the capital, is swarmed on Sundays, and bathing cabins are at a premium. Even weekdays certain types of cabins have been all taken for the season, so the beach offers an aspect of somewhat mild prosperity all the time, despite the depression and the million of unemployed which hangs on the Italian commercial budget.

Clayey, today, goes so far in Rome as to copy the Venetian style of donning pyjamas early in the morning and keeping them on until the late afternoon. Roman ladies now leave home for the beach in stunning colored combinations, mostly of the middie type and get into their cars and drive the fifteen-mile stretch to the blue Mediterranean. There the prevailing ladies have followed the American pattern and are made "for swimming as well as bathing."

BEACH BUSINESS

Not too brisk business, however, flourishes at all the Italian bathing resorts. The depression is being felt even where no foreigners frequent. Beaches like Viareggio, Rimini, Francavilla, Abbadia and others are now barely putting on the activity of their former prosperity. They suffered a bad June because of the weather, while July is better but not up to the standard.

Venice is smiling, but Venice, nevertheless feels the pinch perhaps more than all. An English newspaper gave her famous Lido a terrible blow by publishing that no eating or dancing was allowed in bathing suits and pajamas. "said the hotel men and then came an official government communication to back them up. The communication told the world that the Lido beach in Venice had not changed and that the authorities had not prohibited the curtailment on the famous Venetian liberties in the interests of public morality."

CEASE DISTRIBUTION

REGINA, Sask., Aug. 15.—Distribution of binder twine to the Saskatchewan Relief Commission will be cut off at midnight on August 17, it was announced by C. B. Daniel, manager, Monday. Orders have been issued that orders bearing a subsequent date will be honored by the commission.

DROWNS IN RED RIVER

WINNIPEG, Aug. 15.—Allice Wicker, twenty, of Notre Dame des Lourdes, Man., was drowned in the Red River, near Ste. Agathe, Sunday. The young woman, with a party of others, was wading in shallow water when she slipped into a hole and disappeared.
